2013 : I followed a 3 day Equine Emergency Vetting course at the vetting hospital Equinox in Kasterlee. This was a course I had to follow for my International Equine Air Groom License, from 2 till 4 September

2013.

My vet has taught me a lot. I was also able to assist at two surgery's.

It concerned a Emergency Equine Vetting Course. I had to follow this because I want to become a International Licensed Equine Air Groom. This was truly interesting.

2013 : The rehabilitation of Wouter's back goes very good. We are on schedule. A new check-up will be done in January 2014. A 3th and final surgery of his back will be done at springtime 2014.

2013 : The beautiful mare Holly(Cheezy Z) by Carthago Z, ridden by our Australian friend Brett Warren has confirmed again. She is still one of the best mares in Australia, always Top 3 since she arrived at Brett Warrens stables. Holly is also a Top breeding mare, we are hopeful for her offspring and really interested in seeing them perform at the Australian horse shows.

2013 : Wouter Boonstoppel will be having his 2nd back surgery on the 19th of April 2013. We hope all will go as planned and hope he will get back home asap in good health. We wish him a good rehabilitation at home.

2013 : As from January 2013 we start with the organization of Clinics and Private Training of horses, also Private Instruction of riders. This Worldwide. Please do contact us for more information.

2012 : Sunday, 16th December 2012: We have received good news from out Australia. Cheezy Z gave birth to a beautiful athletic foal, filly. The owners of Cheezy Z selected this time the sire Calgary Gnz. We hope that this filly will become as successful as her mom is.

2012 : Tuesday, 7 February 2012: After receiving many applications, the National Jumping Selectors have selected the following riders to compete in the Australian Team at the Trans-Tasman events in New Zealand in March:

- Billy Raymont and Ocean Beach NZPH

- Brett Warren and Cheezy Z
- Sheridan Manuel and Renmarno
- Tim Clarke and Caltango

2011 : We are very happy to welcome Ms. Karlee McKay from Australia. She will be with us for 1 Month, as from the 5th of June 2011 true the 5th of July 2011. Ms. Karlee McKay will follow the Coaching, Showing and Management programme. Following this intense programme all here skills will be more improved, so she and all here clients and horses will benefit.

2011 : Our first business trip to India from the 7th of March true the 18th of March was a success.

2010 : We are very proud to receive our youngest rider as so far. He is from one of the most beautiful countries in the world, India. Mr. Balaji Madurajan Govindarajan (18) will stay with us for 3 months to improve his equestrian skills.

His training will comprise: horse riding, stable management and sales, showing. He will also be advised by our vet, blacksmith and feeding specialist. The goal of Balaji is to follow the program in Sales and marketing at the best university in Bangalore. Later he will set up his own show stables.

2010 : In October we received feed back from a happy customer about Belcento.

Hello Greenfield!

I purchased Belcento from Florida about two years ago and wanted to let you all know how he is doing. He now lives in South-Carolina and has been doing the ASPCA Maclay and the USEF medals. This is the first year that we have been competing at the 3foot6 level and we have qualified to compete at the Maclay medal finals in Syracuse, NY on Nov. 7th 2010. Tyson (his new name) and I won two 3foot medal finals in 2009. He has been an absolute dream and has been nothing but perfect. I hope to see you guys at HITS this year and I will let you know how we do at the Maclay finals! Thanks!

Sincerely, Nicole.

2010 : Balder shows officially 4foot (1m20) in Italy.

2010 : Nolisco is showing at World Cup level with Kim Hilly in Australia.

2010 : Cheezy Z & Cumo Z are both showing at World Cup level in Australia with Brett Warren.

2009 : First foals from Cheezy Z are born in Australia, this was done by embryo transplantation.

2009 : Students from Singapore where under our supervision during some shows in The Netherlands. All students performed well!

2009 : We had the exclusive contract with the Qatar Police Show Jumping Team to train their official show jumping team at our equestrian training accommodation in The Netherlands.

2009 : We had the exclusive contract to train the kids and also the private trainer of Sheikh Hamad Bin Mohammad Al-Attiyah of Qatar.

2008 : Viper has been crowned as Hunter Champion : 2008 USEF National Grand Champion > Amateur Owner Hunter and also 2008 USEF National Champion amateur Owner +35.

2008 : We have seen Sandra van het Achtenhof (Suivi) in Culpeper, this mare by Jus de Pommes made our dream come true, we are very happy she is showing at Grand-Prix level.
